

K

L

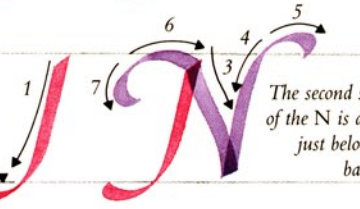

The final stroke of the L can drop below the baseline

M

N

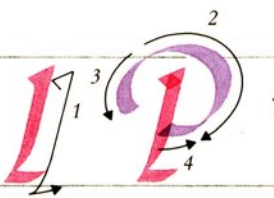

The second stroke of the N is drawn just below the baseline

O

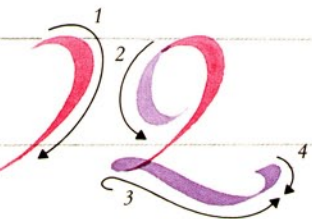

P

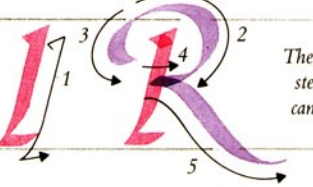

The foot of the P can be omitted

Q

R

The foot on the stem of the R can be omitted

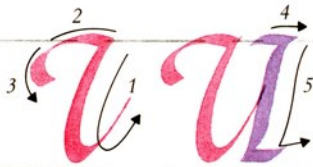

S

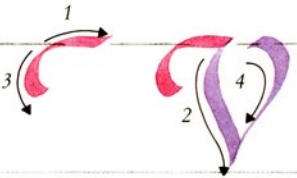

T

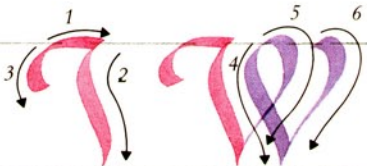

U

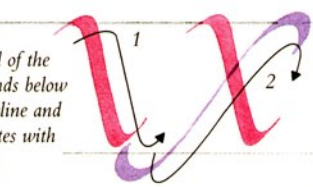

V

W

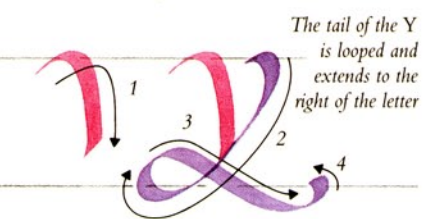

X

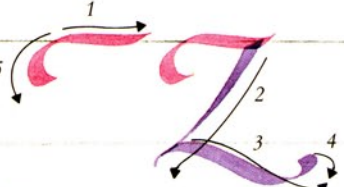

The tail of the X extends below the baseline and terminates with a swash

Y

The tail of the Y is looped and extends to the right of the letter

Z

The tail of Z extends below the baseline and terminates with a swash

The stem of this upright form of B features a wedge serif

This simple upright form of E can be adapted for letters B, D, F, H, I, K, P, R, and T

B E

Upright Swash Capitals, such as this B and E, can replace Italic Capitals (pp. 98–99) in Italic text

Alternative B

Alternative E